NAMES HEADS OF 5 UNITS IN CHEST DRIVE

Chairman of five divisions in the 1960 Gettysburg Community Chest drive were announced today by Paul B. Fox, chairman.

Donald T. Peters will head the local business committee, which began its canvass of area merchants today.

Edwin L. Minter is chairman of the residential division. He will head seven district chairmen responsible for supervision of the door-to-door campaign which begins next Monday.

Other division chairmen are: John E. Caldwell, national and industrial firms; Kenneth G. Reinhart Jr., classified; and Donald Z. Wagner, rural. The rural solicitation will get underway this week.

Atty. S. M. Raffensperger is chairman of the special gifts.

Dr. Harry F. Baughman, president of the Lutheran Seminary, today issued the following appeal for support of the Community Chest Drive:

"The Community Chest idea has become so much a part of our life that we take it for granted. This year nothing should be taken for granted. Every citizen ought to give his best support to the program and organizations of the Community Chest."

GOAL IS $28,300

The overall goal in the one-year campaign to support seven welfare agencies is $28,300.

"I want to express both my personal thanks and the thanks of the many citizens who will benefit to the division chairmen and the many workers who will aid them. They have a big job to do, but a successful campaign will make it worth while," Chairman Fox said today.

Chest headquarters is open Monday through Friday from 9 to 5 on the second floor of the YWCA, Lincoln Square.

Agencies participating in the Chest drive are: Adams County Free Library, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Gettysburg Civic Nursing Association, Red Cross, YWCA, and, to a very minor extent, the Pennsylvania United Fund.

Reach Semifinals In Merit Contest

Judith A. Crum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy K. Crum, Gardner R. 2, and Gudrun J. Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Rice Jr., 135 W. Broadway, have reached the semifinals in the national merit scholarship program, a nationwide cooperative program of assistance to students of exceptional ability and to the colleges they attend.

The two students recently took tests for educational development and were selected on the basis of their scholastic ability. But the decision of the judges also included the population distribution of the state where the school is located, the nature of the school's immediate community, the size and native intelligence of the best students.

Miss Crum and Miss Rice are among 10,000 students in the United States who were named as semifinalists. Each now moves a step closer to winning a four-year merit scholarship to the college of her choice.

Presidential Candidates Debate Face To Face On TV On Domestic Issues

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
CHICAGO (AP)—The 1960 presidential campaign gained momentum today from a history-making face-to-face clash of the rival candidates for the presidency.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy opened up over their differences on farm, school, housing, medical care for the elderly and other issues Monday night before a huge television-radio audience.

The question of the Roman Catholic faith of Sen. Kennedy, the Democratic nominee, never once came up as they debated, who can provide the better leadership in the competition with communism.

NIXON HAMMERS AWAY

Kennedy's religion, while never raised by Nixon, his Republican opponent, is considered by most observers to be a major factor in the campaign, along with the civil rights issue.

And while Nixon didn't mention civil rights, either, Kennedy

Fractures Leg On Merry-Go-Round

Richie Splain, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Splain, R. 4, was treated Monday at the Warner Hospital for a fracture of his right leg received when his foot caught in a merry-go-round at the Eisenhower School.

Kay McDonnell, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar McDonnell, R. 2, received treatment for a dislocation of the right fourth toe incurred Monday while jumping from rocks.

This morning Charles Dillon, 40, R. 3, was treated for a laceration of the left index finger.

WASHBURN TO HEAD CANCER '61 CRUSADE

The Adams County unit of the American Cancer Society today announced completion of its 1960 campaign and selection of a chairman for the 1961 "crusade."

Attorney John A. MacPhail, president of the society, said $10,200 was raised in the 1960 "Cancer Crusade" or $200 more than the goal set for the drive.

He also announced the appointment of N. Thomas Washburn, Park St., general manager for the Aero Oil Co., New Oxford, as chairman for the county drive next April.

Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, Gettysburg R. 3, was selected as the co-chairman for the annual campaign.

TO CHOOSE WORKERS

Attorney MacPhail said the chairman and co-chairmen within the next few months plan to select the several hundred volunteers who will carry on next year's campaign.

The local cancer society is one of 3,033 such units throughout the U.S., MacPhail said. The national society is governed by a national board of 68 directors—half of them physicians and scientists, the other half lay men. It administers the American Cancer Society research program of medical grants and clinical fellowships for research in cancer.

The American public contributes approximately $50,000,000 a year toward cancer control and of that amount about half goes to national programs and the remainder to local programs on the county and state level.

MacPhail said the records show the American public spent 10 times as much on chewing gum as they gave to cancer prevention, 188 times as much on tobacco and smokers' accessories, and 328 times as much on alcoholic beverages. Betting on horse racing was 94 times as much as the amount given for cancer.

Lions See Play At Allenberry Monday

Eighty Gettysburg Lions and guests went to Allenberry Monday evening for dinner and then saw the play "Warm Peninsula." in the Allenberry Playhouse. There was no business session.

Next Monday the Lions will dine at 5:30 o'clock at the VFW home here and then go to the Hanover Shoe Farms for a tour of inspection.

BOARD WILL MEET

The October meeting of the board of directors of the Adams County Free Library has been advanced to Friday of this week. The meeting will be held at the main library on E. High St. at 7:30 o'clock.

HOSPITAL UNIT HEARS HISTORY OF MUSIC BOX

"The Wonderful World of Music Boxes" was presented by Mrs. C. William Harbaugh, Biglerville, at the first fall meeting of the Auxiliary of the Annie M. Warner Hospital held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Moose Home.

Prior to Mrs. Harbaugh's talk Mrs. James Allison, president, announced that M. C. Jones, Herr's Ridge, had presented a silver tea set to the auxiliary in memory of his late daughter, Mrs. Clark Smith, West Broadway, who died suddenly, recently. She had been active in the auxiliary for many years.

Mrs. Harbaugh said the first boxes were made in England and, before long, more than 200 patents were filed for making and improving them.

SNUFF BOXES

"The Swiss turned out many snuff boxes," she said, "some of which were especially made for royalty to give to foreign dignitaries as gifts. As the periods progressed, musical pistols, photo albums, dolls, chairs, and even quilts were made. The heyday of the music box was when a musical bustle was made for Queen Victoria, with the strands of 'God Save the Queen' playing when she sat down."

Large boxes were made extensively, because they had the great improvement of being able to be played for long periods of time without being wound, she said. "Especially loved," Mrs. Harbaugh said, "were the 'hurdy-gurdies' that were played in the streets of London by Italians, with monkeys dancing to the music."

"Music boxes were doomed by Thomas Edison's 'voice boxes,' and stayed out of existence all

Virginia Woman Injured In Crash

A 78-year-old Strasburg, Va., woman was injured and damage totaled $2,100 when a car and truck collided at the Cashtown intersection of the Lincoln Highway, eight miles west of here, Monday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock.

Police said Mrs. William Wilkins, 78, Strasburg, Va., was treated at the Warner Hospital for contusions of the right shoulder and side following an accident in which a car driven by her husband, William C. Wilkins, 79, Strasburg, was struck by a truck operated by Richard L. Koonitz, 28, Taneytown R. 1.

According to police Wilkins was driving south, halted at the stop sign at the intersection, then pulled into the Lincoln Highway in the path of the eastbound truck. The truck struck the right rear of the car causing $1,700 damage to the auto and $400 to the truck.

6 COUNTIANS WILL ATTEND ULCA MEETING

Six Adams Countians will attend the 22nd biennial convention of the United Lutheran Church in America to be held in Atlantic City October 13-20 as delegates. They are: Dr. Wilbur E. Tilberg, retired dean of Gettysburg College, who will serve as chairman of the nominating committee; Dr. Harry F. Baughman, president of the Lutheran seminary; Dr. Harold A. Dunkelberger, director of development and alumni relations at Gettysburg College; Rev. Dr. Robert W. Koons, pastor of Christ Lutheran Church and Rev. Dr. Paul L. Reaser, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, all of Gettysburg, and Luther M. Lady, Biglerville R. 2.

Dr. Tilberg said his committee will nominate the personnel for all the church agencies.

VOTE ON MERGER

The 700 convention delegates will be asked to decide whether the United Lutheran Church will join three other Lutheran church bodies in the largest Lutheran merger in American history.

An agreement of consolidation, to be submitted to delegates for approval, would clear the way for the United Lutheran Church, the Augustana Lutheran Church, the American Evangelical Lutheran Church and the Finnish Evangelical Lutheran Church

NOMINATIONS RECEIVED BY KIWANIS CLUB

Nominations for offices in the Gettysburg Kiwanis Club were presented Monday evening at the club's weekly dinner meeting at the Lamp Post Tea Room, Carlisle St., in preparation for the annual election of officers to be held in two weeks. President William Ditzler presided at the meeting.

President Ditzler expressed the appreciation of the club members for the support given by the community to the club's annual Kids' Day peanut sale that was conducted last Saturday. The proceeds from the sale go to the club's Boys' and Girls' fund for the care and needs of underprivileged youngsters in the county.

John P. Cessna, Gettysburg, was the guest speaker. He talked on "Rocks and Minerals" and described various rock and mineral formations, their differences and the methods of determining the ages of both. He also displayed a collection of rocks and minerals found in the Adams County area.

PLAN LADIES' NIGHT

The club members announced Monday that they will sell Christmas trees again this year, an annual project for raising funds for club projects.

Dr. George Wolfe and Wayne Cluck will represent the club at a district convention to be held next week.

The Kiwanians will hold a ladies' night affair on Monday, October 24, in the form of a Halloween party.

It was announced that William Shoemaker will be in charge of programs for the month of October.

APPLE SHOW AT BANK HERE OCTOBER 19-21

The Gettysburg National Bank's 34th annual Apple Show will open in the bank's lobby Thursday, October 20, and will continue through Friday and Saturday of that week.

Cash prizes again are being offered for the best plate of five apples in each of 10 varieties and there will be a $2 award for the largest sound apple of any variety. The bank offers $7.50 for first prize, $5 for second, $3 for third and $2 for fourth prize for the best plates of apples displayed in these varieties: Jonathan, Golden Delicious, Rome Beauty, Stayman, York Imperial, Red Delicious, Double Red Delicious, Red Rome Beauty, Red Stayman and Red York Imperial.

TWO SPECIAL PRIZES

A special prize of $15 is being offered for the best diamond display of 16 apples of any variety. The second prize will be $10.

All entries must be placed at the bank by 9 p.m. Wednesday, October 19. The bank will be open to receive exhibits Tuesday and Wednesday of that week during banking hours and until 9 p.m. each of those evenings.

Exhibitors may enter as many plates in each class as they wish. Only one prize will be awarded to any family in each class.

The bank conducts the show each year as part of its participation in the observance of National Apple Week and the Pennsylvania Week celebration.

Three Couples Get Marriage Licenses

The clerk of the courts issued marriage licenses today to the following couples:

Joel E. Dugan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice E. Dugan, Bendersville, and Miss Anna M. Ogden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester F. Ogden, Bendersville.

Thomas A. Shields, son of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Shields, Gettysburg, R. 4, and Miss Janet M. Lord, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer C. Lord, Gettysburg R. 5.

Ronald R. Orndorff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Orndorff, Gettysburg R. 5 and Miss Kathryn M. Thoman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry P. Thoman, East Berlin.

NOMINATED SECRETARY

Maynard Stuckey, owner and operator of the Fairfield Hotel, has been nominated secretary of the Pennsylvania Tavern Association. The action took place at the recent state convention in Philadelphia. He is chairman of the ways and means and budget committees.

FILES FOR DIVORCE

William R. Luckenbaugh, Abbotstown R. 1, has filed suit for divorce in York from Hope I. Luckenbaugh, Hanover.

Paper Racks Are Stolen

Seven newspaper racks, six owned by The Gettysburg Times and one by the New Oxford Item, New Oxford, were stolen over the weekend. The racks contained newspapers and cash valued at more than $60.

The sudden wave of these petty thefts has aroused police and they are hopeful of apprehending the thieves.

Racks were stolen from the Avenue Diner, Howard Johnson Restaurant, Plaza Restaurant and the A&P Market, Gettysburg; from Hoffman's Grocery, Bendersville; Gilbert's Grocery, Biglerville, and one in New Oxford.

Newspaper racks have been stolen on previous occasions and police are conducting an investigation.

BOARD GETS 'SPECIAL ED' REPORT HERE

Adams County's board of education Monday evening received its annual report on its program of special education.

The report, presented at a meeting of the board in the county superintendent's office, Carlisle St., showed continued extension of the five-year-old special education program.

During the last year, three new classes, one for primary students at Gettysburg, an elementary class at Conowingo and a secondary class at Bermudian Springs, brought to 12 the number of classes for educable retarded children in the county. Two new secondary classes are scheduled to start operation this fall, one at Gettysburg and one at New Oxford. In addition, the Conowingo elementary special class was removed to the New Oxford Elementary School, according to the report made by supervisor of special education, Miss E. Elizabeth Rutledge.

$150,000 A YEAR

According to the reports Hanover children, now going to a school of their own, are no longer at the Day Care Training Center here. Increased attendance from Adams County however has maintained attendance at 41 children—the maximum the school can handle.

The $150,000 a year special education program included the work of 29 persons during the last year including the supervisor, assistant supervisor, 19 teachers and therapists, two secretaries and six bus drivers.

During the last year, 219 students were in the 12 special classes for educable children, 41 were in the Day Care Training Center, 365 psychological examinations were made, pre-school clinics were

Eisenhower, Macmillan Back United Nations And Secretary After Meeting

NEW YORK (AP)—President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan agreed today to give "full support" to United Nations Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld in his tasks. Hammarskjöld has been a target of Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty, speaking for both officials, made this statement after they had met about two hours:

"The President and the prime minister reviewed the situation in the General Assembly of the United Nations and considered the policies best pursued by their two countries toward their common goal."

IN COMPLETE AGREEMENT

"They were in complete agreement as to the vital role of the United Nations, particularly in the Congo crisis, and the need to give full support to the secretary-general in his tasks."

Khrushchev also has been criticized of the U.N. role in the Congo situation.

The Eisenhower-Macmillan meeting was a breakfast conference in the President's 35th floor suite at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

After an hour they called in their foreign policy chiefs, Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and Lord Home, to help plan coordinated Allied strategy for checking Khrushchev's anti-Western offensive in the United Nations.

WILL MEET OTHERS

In the afternoon, Eisenhower arranged to get together with Canada's John Diefenbaker before ending his busy round of foreign policy talks and heading back to Washington.

The President is reported increasingly confident that numerous neutralist nations will join Western countries in defeating Khrushchev's plan to revamp the United Nations to Moscow's design.

Presidential

can be included in a carefully-drawn balanced budget "if our economy is moving ahead."
ON ALL NETWORKS

And so it went for an hour, with each candidate taking his turn in outlining his case, and answering questions from a panel of television reporters.

The program was carried by all the national television and radio networks—NBC, CBS and ABC, plus MBS radio network. Some individual stations made delayed telecasts and broadcasts of the debate. Television network officials estimated 85 to 75 million persons watched the telecast.

When the program was over, the two contestants agreed on at least one thing: that this first of four nationally televised appearances was good for the country and would increase the turnout of voters Nov. 8.

"GOOD" AND "USEFUL"

"Very good," Nixon said of the debate. "Very sharp exchanges."

Kennedy, standing by, nodded and said, "Very useful."

While both seemed nervous in the studio before the debate started, they were at least moderately self-assured once the performance got under way.

Opening the debate, Kennedy called for "effective government action," saying: "I think it is time America started moving again."

"RETREADS" FROM TRUMAN

While Nixon agreed that "we are in a deadly competition" with Moscow and Peiping, he called Kennedy's proposals for moving the economy ahead "simply retreads of the programs of the Truman administration."

He contended, as he has all along, that during the Eisenhower administration more schools have been built and more electric power developed than any administration in history while also building more houses and highways.

Kennedy said he does not think "we are doing enough," that he is "not satisfied with the progress we are making" with 50 per cent of the country's steel capacity unused, for example.

EXCHANGES ON FARM PLANS

Kennedy said he would not unbalance the budget except in "a grave national emergency," but that the nation's needs are so great he does not see an opportunity for debt reduction in the next few years. Nixon, chiding him, said the Democratic platform mentions paring the national debt.

Nixon said his own farm plan would rescue the farmers from the price-depressing surpluses overhauling the market while Kennedy's would lead to more government control and higher consumer prices.

Kennedy said, in return, that the administration's farm policy has failed, and that Nixon's proposals are not "very much different" from those of Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson.

CITES ROLE OF PEOPLE

Both candidates voiced their support of federal aid to school construction. Kennedy also called for federal subsidies to the states to increase teachers' salaries.

Nixon said federal aid to school construction would free more local funds for teachers salaries and Kennedy's plan would lead to federal control.

Kennedy contended the threat of a veto by President Eisenhower prevented enactment of his $1.25 minimum wage proposal. Nixon replied that Congress could have overridden the veto except for the fact that on this and some other Democratic proposals, the people supported Eisenhower's position.

Senator Clark To Be Here Thursday

Senator Joseph S. Clark, of Philadelphia, will hold a press conference and address the students at Gettysburg College Thursday morning.

Sensor Clark will come here from Chambersburg and hold a press conference in the Student Union Building at 10:15 a.m. after which he will address the students. Following luncheon at the school, he will leave at 1:30 o'clock and drive to Carlisle where he will conduct similar sessions, later going to Hanover.

Sleighter Fires 70 In York Open

Dick Sleichter, pro at the Gettysburg Country Club, fired a 35-35-70 to finish in the money in the fourth annual York Open Golf Tournament held Monday at the Yorktowne course.

The tournament was won by Don Stough, assistant pro at the York Country Club, who defeated Jack Helms and Al Nelson with a birdie-four on the second extra hole in the sudden-death playoff.

The trio had finished with three-under-par 68's in regular play. Art Wall, 1959 Masters' champion, shot a 71.

Dr. Donald Wickerham shot a 39-39-78 and Bob Davies, both of the Gettysburg club, fired a 34-42-79 as amateur entries.

JAILED FOR HEARING

Bernard C. Eckenrode, 117 Carlisle St., was arrested by borough police at his home Monday evening on a charge of surety of the peace lodged by Mrs. Dorothy Eckenrode, 129 Hanover St., New Oxford, before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder. Eckenrode was lodged in the county jail for a hearing later.

DAMAGE IN SQUARE

Borough police reported today that at 4:25 o'clock Monday a tractor-trailer, driven by James H. Brun, Florence, S. C., ran onto the curb in Lincoln Square and caused about $300 damage to a Metropolitan Edison Light Standard, $75 damage to a highway department sign and undetermined damage to shubbery which is the property of the borough.

STOCKS IRREGULAR

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market backed away from a slight recovery and drifted irregularly lower early this afternoon. Trading was moderately active.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was down .50 to 206.50 with the industrials up .30, the rails off .30 and the utilities off 1.00.

The decline continued to push the general level down to its lowest since 1958.

GENEVA OFFER — The United States today offered the Soviet Union a 27-month moratorium on small underground nuclear testing upon the signing of a big three nuclear test ban treaty. The proposal was made by Charles C. Stelle, acting U.S. delegate, in a move to get the resumed negotiations off to a good start.

GUARDSMEN TO DISARM OLD GRENADE

The local National Guard unit has received another call to disarm a weapon. Capt. Donald E. Doersom reported Monday evening at a meeting of the local Howitzer Battery of the 104th Armored Cavalry, W. Confederate Ave.

Saturday, Captain Doersom said, he received a telephone call from Robert Paris, Gettysburg R. 5, reporting a loaded grenade was found in Paris' cellar. Doersom said Paris was excavating the basement when he found the ring of the grenade sticking out of the ground. Not knowing what it was, he attempted to pick up the ring and pulled the grenade from the earth. Doersom immediately went to Paris' home and took possession of the grenade for proper disposition of the weapon.

Monday's instruction for the Guard was on sectional drill and reconnaissance with Sgt. Donald Chamberlain and M/Sgt. Victor L. Reynolds as instructors.

Captain Doersom also reported on the opening exercises for the Pennsylvania Army National Guard Officer Candidate School at Harrisburg. Sp4 Dean W. Bankert, Littlestown, is representing the local unit at the school which continues through the next 10 months.

Lt. James A. Orndorff, recruiting officer for the Guard, announced there are still "choice positions open in the unit." Those interested may visit with Lt. Orndorff at the army any Monday or Tuesday evening.

Eisenhower

Pressing ahead on his one-man diplomatic mission, he also arranged to meet with top representatives of two more independent-minded nations, Premier Norodom Sihanouk of Cambodia and Deputy Premier 'Akilou Abte Wold of Ethiopia.

CONFERS WITH TEN

Eisenhower's chats with the Cambodian and Ethiopian will raise to 10 the number of neutral leaders he has met since he launched his personal drive last Thursday to line up votes for the West in the diplomatic battle against Khrushchev.

Eisenhower is understood to be considerably heartened as a result of lengthy conferences Monday with India's Prime Minister Nehru and President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic.

The president met with each of these key neutral leaders in his temporary New York White House, a suite on the 35th floor of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

To continue his personal diplomacy, Eisenhower is understood to be considering a luncheon meeting with representatives of 13 new African states admitted to U. N. membership last week.

Eisenhower's tactics, unlike Khrushchev who has been leading the Soviet delegation at the United Nations, have been to talk quietly backstage, assisting Secretary of State Christian A. Herter who heads the U. S. working representatives at the United Nations.

The President appealed Monday for "voices of calm" to help still the furor in the United Nations churned up by Khrushchev's assault.

He joined India's Nehru in pledging to push ahead toward world disarmament—though Khrushchev has threatened to stall progress on this until the United Nations is revamped to meet his demands.

In a formal speech before a dinner meeting of the National Conference of Catholic Charities, Eisenhower called on free nations to share their independence if they are to survive in their battle against "a powerful, secretive dictatorship."

Evangelist Opens Series Thursday

The Rev. Elsie Bradfield, Baltimore, will begin services here Thursday in the Community Chapel Church of the Nazarene where special revival services open September 29 and will continue through October 9 at 7:45 o'clock each evening. The church is located on Wainwright Ave., near the high school.

EX-EDITOR OF UKRAINE PAPER TALKS TO CLUB

Apollon Trembow, Orrianna, onetime editor of a Ukrainian newspaper and a refugee from Communist terror, was the speaker recently at a meeting of the Waynesboro Business and Professional Women's Club.

The report of the meeting in which he told of murders by Khrushchev, as carried in the Waynesboro Record Herald, follows:

"Democracy . . . It is a hard word for me to define," Apollon Trembow said during his address to the Business and Professional Women's Club.

PRACTICAL NURSE NOW

"To me, it is not being cheated out of your youth and your early life. If you lived in a Communist-controlled country when you were married, you would have shared one room with your bride and, probably, another family."

With this statement, Apollon Trembow, male practical nurse at Samuel Dixon State Hospital and onetime resident of Communist Ukraine, reached the heart of all the members of his audience Wednesday evening at the Anthony Wayne Hotel.

He made everyone at the dinner-meeting of the BPW Club think what it would be like never to be alone with her family in privacy.

INSTIGATED BY "K"

Trembow continued with his talk, telling the women of losing his friends and relatives during the mass murders instigated by Nikita Khrushchev in the Ukraine.

He lived there from 1913 until 1949, when he arrived in the United States, after fleeing from Russia with his family and entering a displaced persons camp.

His background is filled with the horrors of massacres, mass murders and mass burials.

DISCOVERED MASS GRAVES

During 1942 and '43 he was the editor of a newspaper in the Ukrainian community of Vinnitsa. It was during 1943 that he took part in the discovery of mass graves in Vinnitsa which had been made for those persons murdered by Khrushchev.

In 1943 the graves were uncovered—39 of them holding 5,644 bodies and later 14 more graves were uncovered, holding 1,390 bodies. By the finish of their work, 9,439 bodies were found. These people were all killed by Communists. When they first disappeared, their families believed they were sent to Siberia.

This information Trembow first revealed in the United States to the Committee on Un-American Activities of the House of Representatives, 86th Congress in September of 1959.

HAS PUBLISHED BOOK

In his talk to the women's organization, he continued to tell how he fled Russia after the Germans entered, but was captured by Fascist troops and held in a concentration camp until 1942.

Now weighing 202 pounds, he told the group how he had weighed only 135 while in the camp. He

FEASIBLE AND REWARDING

Ten were enrolled in the program for visually handicapped children; 16 children received homebound instruction when physical disabilities prevented the youngsters from attending school; 583 pupils were enrolled in the program on speech and hearing therapy, of which 362 were in the speech improvement classes.

In noting that 360 counselling sessions were held with children and parents the report said: "Considering the fact that approximately one child in every ten (a conservative estimate) could benefit from counseling services, we have hardly begun to meet the problems in our schools." The report continues: "We continue to find a considerable percentage of the school population who are unable to achieve in accord with their ability due to emotional problems. It is extremely disheartening to encounter numerous parents and children who are actively seeking assistance in this regard who must attempt to meet their needs without the benefit of professional services due to lack of funds or facilities. In reconsideration of the goals of this present program we may honestly say that we have completed nothing more than a small beginning. If nothing else, we have demonstrated that a school counseling program is feasible and rewarding. Perhaps in the future such service may yet be realized on a larger

Robinson Won't Box Archie Moore

GILMAN HOT SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — No matter how he fares against middleweight champion Gene Fullmer Oct. 8, Sugar Ray Robinson won't fight Archie Moore.

"I had everything all set up for a match with Moore two years ago," Robinson said Monday at his training camp here. "Instead, he turned around and accepted an offer to fight Yvon Duerelle for $150,000."

"Under the setup I had arranged, Matty Fox would have staged our fight and guaranteed us $500,000 each."

"Why did Moore take the other offer? I think the promoters promised to set Archie up as a promoter in California."

Issue Warrant For Arrest Of Actor

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — A bench warrant was issued Monday for the arrest of actor Michael O'Shea after he failed to show up for his trial on charges of carrying a concealed weapon.

ROTARY TOLD

this is unreal, but the image the public has built concerning him permits him to show the gravity of being a President and to express the hope that he will be up to it. Kennedy possibly is equally humble but he has to combat charges of youthfulness and immaturity and thus must present a constant appearance of assurance.

BOTH RELIGIOUS MEN

"Kennedy seeks to present the idea that he is a working liberal who has consistently followed the liberal line, but at the same time wants to avoid the impression that he is a wild-eyed radical. As a result, he has cited Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt and quoted other historical figures and says he will bring a sense of history to the White House, thus combining traditionalism and imagination."

"Nixon suggests that he can unite his party and take suggestions from both Rockefeller and Goldwater and bring a sort of liberal-conservatism to the job."

"It is interesting to note also that while both men are religious, even pious, both have sought to a certain extent to disassociate themselves from their religion in the campaign."

STUDENT IS GUEST

Paul B. Fox reported that the business phase of the annual Community Chest drive will begin this week.

Julius Swope reported George Lowe, a public relations assistant for the Atlantic Refining Co., will speak on highway safety at next week's meeting. The driving instructors of the county's high schools will be guests of Rotary at the meeting.

Ronald Frew was introduced as the student Rotarian. President William Lentz announced that Dr. Kenneth Smoke and Dr. John Zinn had been named to represent Rotary at a meeting at the Hotel Gettysburg Wednesday evening at which plans will be outlined for an appearance by the Pittsburgh Symphony here.

TELLS OF NEW WING

Walter Dillon, administrator of the hospital, explained the future construction of the left wing and added that, if the auxiliary desired to do so, they could have as a three-year project to provide the hospital with an ultrasonic cleaner, which will cost $10,000. Mrs. Monroe Dellinger suggested that a good start would be to sell tickets for the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra concert, which will be presented at the high school Monday, October 24.

It was also decided to add $1,700 to the three-year goal for a delivery table, which is much needed in the hospital.

Mrs. Allison announced that Mrs. Thomas Winter will be the new hostess chairman and Mrs. John D. Teeter, rummage sale chairman.

A tea followed the meeting. The new representatives from the county to the board of directors are: Mrs. Kenneth Alwine and Mrs. Earl Carey, Biglerville area; and Mrs. Richard Phraener and Mrs. Frank Basehore, Littlestown area.

Philly Orchestra To Play In Hershey

Central Pennsylvania music lovers will be accorded a treat on Tuesday, October 4, at the Hershey Community Theater when the famous Philadelphia Orchestra, under the baton of Eugene Ormandy, will present a program of "Music for Everyone."

Mr. Ormandy, universally acclaimed as one of the great conductors, will direct the 107-piece orchestra in such favorites as Brahms' "Festival Overture," Beethoven's Symphony No. 7 in A Major, Strauss' Overture to Die Fledermaus, Trittch-Trasch Polka, New Pizzicato Polka, Explosions Polka and the ever popular "Tales From Vienna Woods."

From its first concert on November 16, 1900, the Philadelphia Orchestra has been one of the leading artistic institutions and under the direction of Eugene Ormandy, now celebrating his 25th anniversary season as conductor-director, the Philadelphia Orchestra is recognized as one of the world's greatest orchestras.

Tickets are on sale at the theater box office in Hershey.

INVITED TO LITTLESTOWN

Assistant Superintendent of Schools M. Francis Coulson reported that committees have been formed by the state to study a proposal of Fairfield School system to add to its schools and to study proposals for additions to all three elementary buildings in the Upper Adams area. It is anticipated, he said, that the various additions will be eligible for state reimbursement within the "next year or so" and as a result "we can look forward to some more needed building."

Members of the county board were invited to attend the cornerstone laying program at Littlestown October 9 at 2 p.m.

COMMUNION AT 3 SERVICES IN ABBOTTSTOWN

Holy Communion will be held in St. John's Lutheran Church, Abbottstown, Sunday at 8 and 10:30 a.m. and at 2:30 p.m. Children will be baptized at 2 o'clock.

Onni Kangas, newly chosen business manager of the Central Pennsylvania Synod, will be the speaker for the adults on Rally Day, October 9, at 9:15. The newly-elected officers, teachers and assistants of the church school will be installed by the Rev. L. J. Karschner, pastor, at 10:30. The Church School workers will participate in a planning conference at 7 o'clock on the same evening.

The 200th anniversary homecoming will take place on October 16, Dr. Norman Wolf, a son of the congregation, will be the speaker at the 10:30 a.m. service which will mark the 70th anniversary of the dedication of the church building. Lunch will be served by the Ladies Aid Society at 12:30 o'clock. An informal service of homecoming will be held at 2 o'clock.

Several Church School leaders are planning to attend the leadership schools at Hanover and Gettysburg during the coming weeks.

The congregation is participating in the evangelism mission being conducted by the Lutheran churches of the West Pennsylvania Conference of the Lutheran Church.

On October 7 at 7:30 the executive committee of the "Parish Life Advance Now" will meet in the parlor.

Flowers adorning the altar last Sunday were in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Lillich, presented by Mr. and Mrs. George Lillich. The chancel was adorned by a bouquet presented in loving memory of Mrs. Charles Crawford by the children.

Gary Landis will be acolyte for the month of October. Mrs. George Meckley and Mrs. Paul Harbold will serve on the Altar Guild during the next month.

Yanks Make It 10 In Row; First Division Battles Being Waged

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Pittsburgh Pirates and New York Yankees clutch the flags, but the races aren't over yet in the majors, not with eight clubs scrambling for the left overs.

While the Pirates, still aglow after winning their first National League pennant in 33 years, were idle Monday, the Yankees, American League champs for the 10th time in a dozen years under Manager Casey Stengel, kept humming with a 4-2 victory at Washington in 10 innings.

It was the 10th straight success for the Yankees, the longest of the year in the majors and the champs' best string since 1958, when they also won 10 in a row.

RACE FOR SERIES CASH
The races for a chunk of World Series cash, split among the first-division clubs in each league, centered around Milwaukee-St. Louis and Los Angeles-San Francisco in the NL; and the Chicago-Baltimore and Cleveland-Washington in the AL.

Chicago's White Sox, battling to keep intact manager Al Lopez' record of never having finished lower than second, pulled into a second-place tie with idle Baltimore by beating Detroit 6-3. Cleveland lost 6-1 at Kansas City, but retained a 1½-game edge over Washington for fourth place.

Milwaukee and St. Louis were idle, leaving the Braves a half-game in front of the Cards. San Francisco moved within 2½ games of fourth-place Los Angeles by beating the Dodgers 6-2 in the only NL game scheduled.

The Yankees, keeping the remaining races "honest," started most of their regulars at Washington, but finished by using 20 players. They had to bounce back with two runs in the 10th inning for the majors' longest streak since Kansas City won 11 in a row last season.

20th HOMER FOR MINOSO
A pinch sally by Hector Lopez broke up a 2-2 tie, after a double by Bob Cerv and a walk, Dale Long, who homered in the second inning, capped the rally with a single off loser Pedro Ramos (11-17). Duke Maas (3-1) was the winner in relief of rookie Bill Stafford, who gave up Harmon Killebrew's 31st home run, a tying, two-run shot in the seventh.

Minnie Minoso was 3-for-3, belted his 20th home run and drove in two runs along with Luis Aparicio as the White Sox beat Bill Fischer (8-8). Frank Baumann was the winner for a 13-6 record.

DALEY BEATS CLEVELAND
Southpaw Bud Daley (16-15) beat Cleveland with a four-hitter—his first victory over the Indians this season—while the A's backed him with 14 hits, one a homer by Pete Daley. Dick Stigman (5-11) was the loser.

The Giants, shut out on three hits for seven innings, scored all their runs in the eighth, three on Don Blasingame's triple. That beat Don Drysdale (14-14), who had won seven in a row at the Coliseum. Mike McCormick (14-12) was the winner.

SPIDERS WILL OPEN SEASON ON WEDNESDAY

The Gettysburg Seventh and Eighth Grade Spiders will open their three-game football schedule Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 when they play at Boiling Springs.

Other games on the schedule include October 5, Chambersburg Central, here, and October 12, Biglerville, away.

Coaches Charles Lilley and Jack Maloney have a squad of 36 candidates including the following:

Seventh Grade — James Culp, William Deal, Jeff Dengler, Selmar Hess, Marvin Simpson, Terry Helwig, Mike Keefer, Mike Leatherman and Kit Richardson.

Sidney Weikert, a 1959 graduate of Gettysburg High School, is seeking a berth on the Muhlenberg College soccer squad.

The Mules, with eight letter-men back, open a 10-game schedule on October 5 against Lehigh.

KANSAS LOOKS AHEAD FOR BETTER TIMES

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

Big Eight title, national ranking and other notions of football grandeur have been bouncing through the minds of the Kansas Jayhawks this year. They might have some basis for this rarely practiced optimism, even with second-ranked Syracuse coming to town Saturday.

The Jayhawk fans give three reasons: John Hadl, whose backfield versatility enables him to operate between quarterback and halfback; Curtis McClinton, a halfback, and his sophomore running mate, Bert Coan. You can't fault them so far, and the last to disagree is Syracuse Coach Ben Schwartzwalder.

MITCHELL CAGEY
The trio, in two games, has scored 6 of Kansas' 8 touchdowns as the Jays rolled over a stunned Texas Christian team 21-7 and easily defeated Kansas State 41-0.

So far they seem to have borne out Coach Jack Mitchell's pre-season evaluation of the team being "10 times better than last year." It finished in '59 with a 5-5 record, including a 7-6 loss to Oklahoma and a 35-21 loss to Syracuse.

However Mitchell is being his usual cagey self while his team preps for the game.

BETTER THIS YEAR
"We're better than last year, but how much better we don't know," he said, referring to the chances of his trio of swiftness to get through the rugged Syracuse line. "Syracuse has the best defense in college football. We haven't played any real great football teams yet."

Syracuse allowed Boston University only two yards rushing and 25 passing in a 35-7 victory last Saturday.

Hadl did better than that himself against TCU. He scored on runs of 52 and 16 yards. Coan rallied twice against K-State on 3 yard bursts and once against TCU from the 1-yard line. McClinton also scored from a yard out against Kansas State, and ground out 91 yards in 16 carries. Coan picked up 84 yards in 10 trips.

BIG OBSTACLE
If this trio can't turn the trick in the nationally televised game then Syracuse has overcome one of the biggest obstacles toward another undefeated season and fifth-ranked Kansas will have to put all its eggs in the basket marked "Big Eight title."

Which is nothing to sneeze at when you think of it.

The Jayhawk's hopes received a bit of a jolt Monday when No. 1 right end Sam Simpson was declared out of Saturday's game with a charley horse. He missed last Saturday's game after being hurt against TCU.

Matthews And Lane In Double Event

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Third-ranked lightweight challenger Len Matthews, headlining an attractive card which ushers in the indoor boxing season at the Arena, hopes to make it two in a row over Panama champion Jorge Quintero tonight in a return 10-round bout.

In the co-featured 10-rounder veteran southpaw Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., the No. 7 ranked lightweight challenger, meets Sid (Sweetpea) Adams, like Matthews, a Philadelphian.

Herman Taylor, who is promoting the card, has said he will attempt to bring the two winners together in a later bout.

Matthews, 21, and Lane, 28, are rated slight favorites on the basis of experience and previous bouts.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia says he's glad Pittsburgh won the National League pennant — but.

Mayor Joseph M. Barr of Pittsburgh received this telegram from Dilworth Monday:

"Congratulations from an eighth-place city to a first-place city. . . . It certainly is a happy day for Pittsburgh, but wait until next year."

HITS HIGH TAXES

PITTSBURGH (AP) — High taxes are driving business and industry out of Pennsylvania, says Pittsburgh industrialist Willard F. Rockwell.

Speaking on a radio program here Monday night, Rockwell also said the state's tax structure is one of the worst in the nation. Rockwell is president of Rockwell Manufacturing Co.

BIGLER JV 11 DROPS OPENER AT HANOVER

Biglerville High School's junior varsity dropped its opening game Monday afternoon when it bowed at Hanover 20-6 in a hard fought game.

The Hawks broke a scoreless tie with a touchdown on the last play of the first half when Spahr took a 20-yard pass for a score. Sidenstricker plunged over for the point.

Another pass, this time a 10-yarder to Sidenstricker, produced Hanover's second score in the third period. Again Sidenstricker carried for the point.

Midway in the last period Biglerville struck for its lone touchdown, George Montgomery plunging over from the five.

The last play of the game produced the final Hawk TD as Carl raced over from the 15 on a roll-out.

Next Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock the same teams will meet at Biglerville.

The lineups:
BIGLERVILLE
ENDS—W. Alexander, P. Pitzer, H. Bowers.
TACKLES—D. Ebbert, K. Thomas.
GUARDS—R. Barbour, R. Kuhn, J. Hartman.

AFL HEAD STILL HOPING FOR COURT ACTION

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Commissioner Joe Foss of the American Football League said Monday night that dismissal of the league's anti-trust suit against members of the western division of the National Football League would have little effect on the case.

A federal district judge Monday dismissed the American Football League's $10 million suit against six western teams in the NFL.

Judge Alexander Holtzoff ruled in Washington that the suit had been properly filed against six teams in the eastern division of the NFL and Baltimore in the western division.

6 TEAMS SUABLE
He ruled that New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, and St. Louis could be sued because their appearances in Washington are regular.

The AFL charges a conspiracy by the older NFL to monopolize football, including attempts to monopolize players and franchise and television rights.

Foss said "the whole league is involved regardless of whether part of the clubs are not actually being sued."

OILERS LEAD IN AFL STATISTICS

DALLAS (AP) — The 1-2 punch of Dave Smith and Billy Cannon of Houston sets the ball-carrying pace in the American Football League.

The Oilers lost their first game last weekend, 14-13 to Oakland, but it didn't knock Smith, the former Ripon star, out of first place in rushing.

Smith has romped for 256 yards and leads for the third straight week.

BLANDA LEADS SCORERS
Cannon, the celebrated Louisiana State All-America, has moved into second place with 163 yards.

In scoring, too, Houston still has the leader—George Blanda, the old pro quarterback, who has made 40 points, 22 of them with placement kicks.

Al Carmichael of Denver tops in kickoff returns with 249 yards and Gene Mingo of Denver leads at running back punts although he only has one to his credit—a 76-yarder in the opening game. Cannon has moved into a sharp challenging position with three returns for 72 yards.

Al Dorow of New York took over the punting lead. He has a 44-yard average on six kicks.

JOHNSTOWN TO FACE WINDBER ON SATURDAY

By FRED B. WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP) — Windber High School gets its big chance this Saturday against Johnstown's unbeaten Trojans in what may turn out to be the biggest football game of the year in Pennsylvania scholastic sports.

Events of the past weekend put the spotlight more brightly on the meeting of these two traditional rivals.

And, though Windber will come into the game a slight underdog, there seems to be in the air something that spells "finish" to long-run unbeaten strings.

24 STRAIGHT WINS
With Bradcock finally defeated by Hopewell, 7-6, after 56 games (46 straight victories, one tie), Johnstown moved to the top of the list among the state's unbeaten with 24 straight.

Windber, with successive victories over Washington, Altoona and Indiana, may very well be the toughest opponent on Johnstown's schedule.

The weekend just passed saw an end to some other long streaks, besides Bradcock's.

12 LEFT FROM 29
Amble, which had won 22 straight, bowed to Hatboro (15-14); Northampton — fourth on the all-winning list with 17—lost its opener to Phillipsburg of New Jersey; and Avella, unbeaten in 29 games (two ties), was stopped by St. Anthony of Follansbee, W. Va., 6-0.

That moved Wyoming of Berks County up to second place on the winning list with 15 straight.

Bradford and Farrell also were scratched, leaving only 12 of 1959's unbeaten teams still undefeated in 1960. There were 29 when the season began.

NEXT IN INTEREST
The remaining holdovers are Avonworth, Charleroi, Clifton Heights, Kingston Catholic, Lancaster, Masontown, Moniteau, Piquette, Roseto, North Bradcock, Scott and Wilkes-Barre Meyers in addition to Johnstown and Wyoming.

Next to the Johnstown-Windber game, the West Scranton-Berwick meeting ranks in interest.

This latter brings together the two teams favored to win their respective divisions in the East Penn Conference and could be a preview of the conference championship game in November.

CLEM LABINE IS EAGER FOR SERIES PLAY

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Probably nobody on the Pittsburgh club is looking forward to facing the New York Yankees in the World Series with more eagerness than Clem Labine, the veteran relief ace.

Not that this would be the first World Series for Labine; he has been in four of them. Not that he is seeking to vindicate himself against the American League champions; he has already beaten them twice in four Series decisions.

But just six weeks ago, Labine had to make up his mind whether to become a probable Yankee or a positive Pirate. He chose the latter.

RELEASED BY TIGERS
The 34-year-old curve baller just happens to think it's nice to show himself — especially under these circumstances — to the club that told him, "We'll wait and see."

Here's how it happened: Last August Labine was back home in Woonsocket, R.I., seriously considering quitting baseball and devoting full time to his men's wear business.

He had been handed his unconditional release by the Detroit Tigers only three days before. The only calls he had received were a couple of bids from minor league clubs.

YANKEE CALLED
Then it happened. The telephone rang. A spokesman from the Yankees was on the other end of the phone.

"Stay in shape," the Yankee official told Labine. "We'll probably take you on in a couple of weeks. We don't have room for you now. As soon as we cut down a man, we'll call you."

An hour passed and the phone rang again. It was Joe Brown of the Pirates.

"How's your arm?" asked the Pittsburgh general manager.

"Nothing wrong with it," said Labine.

"I'd like to have you on the club," Brown said. "How soon can you come to Pittsburgh?"

"I'll start packing right away," was the reply.

It was a happy decision all around. Labine, a flop with Detroit after the Tigers had claimed him on waivers from Los Angeles earlier this season, has pitched brilliantly for Pittsburgh and undoubtedly was a determining factor in the Pirates' pennant drive.

The veteran pitcher turned in three scoreless relief innings in his first appearance with the Pirates.

Welterweight Bout Postponed 2 Weeks

NEW YORK (AP) — Argentina's Federico Thompson will have to wait until Oct. 29 at least to get his shot at the welterweight boxing championship held by Cuba's Benny Paré.

The bout, originally scheduled for Madison Square Garden Oct. 15, has been tentatively rescheduled for Oct. 29 because of the champion's infected tonsils.

OLE MISS LEADS SYRACUSE BY SMALL MARGIN

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Syracuse, the defending national champion and an easy winner in its only start to date this year, still ranks second to Mississippi in the opinion of The Associated Press panel of experts selected to determine the ranking of the nation's college football teams.

Mississippi, which swamped Kentucky last Saturday night 21-6 for its second victory, today held a slim margin over Syracuse in the poll with a point total of 426 to 414 for the Orangemen. Old Miss got 22 first place votes from the 48 sports writers and broadcasters to 20 for Syracuse, which breezed over Boston University last week 35-7.

Washington, with two victories in as many starts, was in third place with 353 points and five first places, and Illinois placed fourth with 235 points.

The top teams with first place votes in parentheses (Points based on a 10-9-8-7, etc., order):

1. Mississippi (22)	426
2. Syracuse (20)	414

HAS 3-0 RECORD
He has relieved in 14 games, saved four, has a 3-0 record.

Explaining why he didn't fare well with the sixth place Tigers, Labine said:

"It's tough to be with a club that's going nowhere and doesn't seem to care. You can be the greatest fighter in the world, but if fellows behind you don't fight, you're licked."

"After a while, you say to yourself, 'What the heck is this? I'll be darned if I'm going to do it all by myself.' Consciously or subconsciously, you find yourself falling into the same rut and after a while it doesn't hurt as much although you still don't like to lose."

STEELERS NEED DEFENSE TO MATCH OFFENSE

By DAVID A. LEHERR
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Sure the Pittsburgh Steelers can win the National Football League title this year, says Coach Buddy Parker—"but we'll have to brush up our defensive play to do it."

"All through the exhibition season and in our first game last week our defense was bad," Parker said Monday at the Steelers training camp at South Park.

"We're especially bad on pass defending," he continued. "Too many receivers are getting loose in our secondary and grabbing off those key short passes. It's killing us."

OTHER FLAWS
Parker said he has yet to see the team that can go all the way without a good defense.

"It's just as much a part of the game as a good, strong offensive unit," he said. "We have some other minor defensive flaws too, but they can be ironed out pretty quickly. My biggest concern is pass defense."

Parker said if it just took offensive strength, he figures the Steelers would be in a real good position to snatch the 1960 NFL title.

GOOD OFFENSE
"I've said it before and I'll say it again, it's the best offensive squad I've had since I came to Pittsburgh," Parker reiterated.

"We've got a great running attack, a wonderful passer and quarterback and some tremendous pass receivers."

He said halfback Tom Tracy and fullbacks John Henry Johnson and Charlie scales can run with the best of them.

LAYNE SPARKS WIN
"As for (Jimmy) Orr, (Jack) McClair, (Preston) Carpenter and (Buddy) Dial—well, they're all just as good as any other receiver in the league," Parker continued.

He also heaped praise on his veteran quarterback Bobby Layne, who last week set a new league record for passing yardage.

Layne, playing his 13th season in the NFL, has passed for 22,351 yards. Sammy Baugh held the old record of 22,063 set over a 16-year period.

Layne's performance also sparked the Steelers to a comeback from behind 35-28 triumph over the Dallas Cowboys last Saturday night.

The Steelers posted a mediocre 2-3-1 record during the exhibition tour. They beat the Toronto Argonauts and the Baltimore Colts, lost to the Green Bay Packers, Cleveland Browns and Detroit Lions and played to a tie with the Chicago Bears.

"I'm really going to have to bring the title to Pittsburgh this year, I guess," Parker laughed.

"After all, we can't be outdone by the Pirates, can we?"

Pavement Plato Has Some Comments On 'K' And U.N.

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Curbstone comments of a Pavement Plato: The United Nations meetings are getting more and more like a bad TV show—you can't always follow the plot, but the commercials sure do come in loud and clear.

The United States certainly could take lessons from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev in one thing—how to get rid of a surplus supply of corn.

Just when everyone was worrying about the survival of the American way, Casey Stengel and the New York Yankees came through with another baseball pennant. It never pays to give up hope too soon.

MARK OF CIVILIAN

There is a growing suspicion that Fidel Castro of Cuba doesn't know the difference between 5 o'clock shadow and the hour before midnight.

So many police are guarding the international statesmen gathered here for the U.N. meeting that anyone in Manhattan not wearing a uniform looks like an exhibitionist.

The easiest way to tell a civilian is this: He's the guy without a motorcycle escort.

BEATS DEMOSTHENES

Khrushchev's threat to make 10 more U.N. speeches has an ominous ring to it. Once he said, "We'll bury you." Now it is becoming obvious how he intends to do this—not with a spade but with oratory.

Demosthenes learned to speak well by putting a pebble in his mouth. Khrushchev has gone him one better. He's trying to do the same thing with a foot.

A lucky accident happened to one of our friends who was listening to the Soviet premier's tirade via television. The battery in his hearing aid went dead—at the same time the picture tube blew out.

At last we can get even with

Fidel Castro for seizing a billion dollars in U.S. assets in Cuba. We can make Castro, who is a baseball fan, pay his own way to see the World Series.

The city fathers here are considering changing their tourist slogan to "New York is a Summit Festival."

The international crisis has already had this result in one home:

After intently watching President Eisenhower's U.N. address, a wife told her husband:

"What impressed me most was that Ike was wearing a vest. So if you want a vest with your new suit, go ahead and buy it."

STATELESS STOWAWAY IS UNWELCOME

LONDON (AP)—Samuel Abdullah, 25, has traveled widely, but all he sees of the countries he visits is their docks and prisons.

The stateless stowaway now is lodged in London's Brixton Jail while officials puzzle over his future, for Abdullah is a man no country wants.

He is believed to be an Indian from the East Punjab, but has no papers to prove his identity. He first showed up in England on the liner Strathmore in September 1959. He said he had stowed away at Colombo.

British authorities refused to let him land. He was transferred to the liner Iberia and sent back to Bombay. There Indian authorities refused to accept him, and Abdullah spent the next nine months sailing around the Indian coast.

In May, he was put aboard another liner for England, and again he was refused permission to land. He claimed he had come from Fiji—so to Fiji he went. But the Fijians didn't want him either and shipped him back to England. He arrived at Tilbury docks Sunday aboard the liner Strathnaver.

British officials said if no arrangements can be made for Abdullah to stay here he will be shipped out on the next Pacific and Orient liner to leave England.

At last we can get even with

IUE EXPECTS STRIKE OCT. 1 ACROSS NATION

NEW YORK (AP) — The International Union of Electrical Workers (IUE), largest union in the ranks of General Electric Co. employees, says it expects to start a nationwide strike against GE plants at midnight Oct. 1.

IUE President James B. Carey said Monday that the union's GE Conference Board probably will authorize the Oct. 1 midnight walkout when it meets here Friday. The Conference Board is made up of delegates from each IUE local. A majority of the locals have voted to authorize a strike.

The IUE has about 70,000 members in GE plants across the country. There are about 100 other unions. The second largest is the independent United Electrical Workers (UE).

Negotiations between the IUE and GE on a new contract continue today with the aid of federal mediators.

Garey, in announcing the expectation of a strike, asked the company to agree to establishment of a fact-finding or arbitration board in the dispute. But Philip Moore, chief negotiator for the company, indicated there was no chance that the company would agree to either proposal.

Moore said that if there is a strike the company would try to continue operating. He added, however, that this might not be possible if members of other unions observed IUE picket lines.

WAGES AN ISSUE

Demands by the union include a 3.5 per cent pay increase in each year of the three-year contract, retention of the cost-of-living escalator clause, an employment security program including supplemental unemployment benefits, and a nationwide union shop.

The union says the average hourly wage of GE production employees is $2.30 to $2.40 an hour.

The largest GE plants where the IUE is represented are at Schenectady and Syracuse, N.Y.; Lynn and Pittsfield, Mass.; Fort Wayne, Ind.; Louisville, Ky.; Cleveland; Philadelphia, and Bridgeport, Conn. The company says that 75 to 77 per cent of the IUE's GE strength is concentrated in these cities.

British officials said if no arrangements can be made for Abdullah to stay here he will be shipped out on the next Pacific and Orient liner to leave England.

Calls His Visit "Providential"

BERLIN (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham, under attack by the Communists, Monday called his visit to divided Berlin "providential."

A huge tent holding 20,000 persons has been set up for him within 100 yards of the "Little Iron Curtain" that separates the two parts of the city. The first of a week's series of meetings was to be held tonight.

"We planned this trip more than 18 months ago," he told a news conference, "and we did not know that we would be here at this difficult time. It is providential that we should be here just now, where the two worlds meet."

"Berlin is the most prayed-for spot in the world just now—unless it is New York," he said.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP) — Rutgers football coach John Bateman dropped a first string designation for line men today.

He said he has two line units, equally effective, and he's calling them the Scarlet and the Blue.

Both will see action against the University of Connecticut at Storrs, Conn., Saturday.

JEWS ASK FOR LEGISLATURE HOUSING BILL

HARRISBURG (AP)—The 1961 legislature has been asked by a Pennsylvania Jewish group to renew efforts to pass a fair housing practices law.

The Pennsylvania Area Conference of the American Jewish Committee adopted a resolution calling on the general assembly to pass legislation "which will effectively safeguard the rights of Pennsylvania citizens to secure housing regardless of race, color, creed or national origin."

The action came at the windup of the group's two-day meeting Sunday.

BILL FAILED

The resolution was endorsed by delegates from Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Wilkes-Barre, Allentown, Kingston, Harrisburg, Beaver Falls, Easton, Danville and Erie.

A bill that would have banned discrimination in the sale of public housing passed the Democratic-controlled House but was bottled up in committee in the Republican-controlled Senate during the 1959 session.

The Lawrence administration has said it will renew efforts to get such a measure passed in the 1961 session which convenes in January.

In a speech to the Jewish group Saturday night, Atty. Gen. Anne X. Alpern criticized a group of Protestant clergymen which issued a statement several weeks ago saying that a Roman Catholic would be under extreme pressure from the church's hierarchy if he were elected to the presidency.

EX-SENATOR IS SENTENCED

BEAVER, Pa. (AP) — Former State Sen. Samuel G. Neff and Robert Yoho, former State Highway Dept. supervisor in Beaver County, Monday were fined $500 apiece and sentenced to 6 months to 2 years in the Allegheny County workhouse as a result of being convicted in a highway kickback scheme.

Leon Kaleta, a former State Highway Dept. supervisor, was fined $100 and ordered to serve

Do FALSE TEETH Rock, Slide or Slip?

FASTTEETH, an improved powder to be sprinkled on upper or lower plates, holds false teeth more firmly in place. Do not slide, slip or rock. No gummy, sticky, pasty taste or feeling. Democrats Hold Edge In 5 Counties

HARRISBURG (AP) — Democrats assumed a slight edge over Republicans in registration figures for five counties, the first to report their eligible voters for the Nov. 8 election to the State Elections Bureau.

Total registration reported to Monday was 115,361. Democrats led 57,916 to 56,843. There were 602 miscellaneous registrations.

The counties and their totals (precincts, Democrats, Republicans and other in order):

Armstrong 75 — 17,693, 22,084, 155; Carbon 61 — 14,846, 13,346, 234; Greene 51 — 15,422, 4,626, 35; Potter 34 — 3,509, 5,316, 98; Susquehanna 57 — 6,446, 11,471, 80.

CHILD NEGLECT TRIAL HELD UP

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP) — Because of the illness of Juvenile Court Judge Margaret J. Spellacy the child neglect trial of Lillian Fratanonio, mother of the "sleeping beauty" girls was interrupted Monday.

Judge Spellacy, 38, was taken to Lakewood Hospital Sunday suffering from severe pleurisy. Her family said the pleurisy followed a severe case of pneumonia Judge Spellacy suffered six weeks ago.

Mrs. Fratanonio is accused of mistreating her children, Bernadette, 3, and Venita, 5, by feeding them barbiturates, which kept them in a state of coma for long periods.

A statement to police, in which 2 months to 2 years in the workhouse.

Two other defendants in the same case were fined and placed on probation.

James Macry was placed on probation and ordered to pay $500 in court costs.

Edward Mitche received probation and was ordered to pay $250 in costs.

BOOZE SALES HIT BY WCTU

PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—Officials of the Women's Christian Temperance Union hit at unrestricted sales of alcoholic beverages and the problem of drinking mothers Monday as the

Mrs. Fratanonio allegedly told of giving the children barbiturates, has been admitted as evidence by the court. Mrs. Fratanonio, 29, contends the statement was given under duress and denies she drugged her children. The trial started last Monday. The prosecution still has several witnesses to present.

Mrs. Glenn G. Hays of Washington, D.C. and Ransom, Kan., past president of the WCTU and its current representative in the nation's capital, called for "new prohibitive and regulatory legislation" to curb drink-caused casualties and crime.

"The question is not one of legislating for the public morals, but of legislating for the public health and safety," she said.

The charge that drinking mothers are a major factor behind teen-age delinquency was made by Miss Jean Hanse of Evanston, Ill., national general secretary of the Loyal Temperance Legion, the WCTU affiliate for children 6 to 12 years of age.

UNIVAC TO AIR TABULATION OF ELECTION

By SAW DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — Now that the nation has seen and heard Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy debate on TV and radio another electronic marvel is all set to tell the people early on the night of Nov. 8 how they've made up their minds.

Aware that this election has issues and stresses unlike those in the past, some 100 electronic computer researchers and programmers nevertheless insist they've got their big machine ready to foretell the final election outcome from only the earliest returns.

Data is ready to be stuffed into a waiting Univac which will compare voting returns this year with those going back to 1896. But it won't be all comparison. The changing trends of recent years, and the special issues of this one—even the tricky religious one—are being taken into consideration.

ABC TV
The giant computer is expected to issue its first prediction early on election night to the ABC TV network. And Daise L. Bibby, president of Remington Rand Division of Sperry Rand Corp., is confident his machine's prediction will come very close to the final Electoral College vote.

But computer experts admit that if the upcoming election is as close as some observers predict, the first findings won't be conclusive. They insist that the trend, barring a tie, will soon thereafter be apparent, but that in any event it will foretell a close race as quickly as it will a strong trend.

If the religious issue changes the historical pattern in this election, Univac experts insist the computer will be able to spot the extent of the change quickly in early returns. The machine is set up to compare voting results with that and other particular issues in mind.

CHANGING PATTERNS

Changing voting patterns in the 1930s and 1940s have been the subject of intensive mathematical studies of the presidential elections over that and subsequent periods.

Relations of voting trends for a region to those for the nation as a whole are studied. This is important because early returns are mostly from the East due to time differences. But Univac experts say that usually changing trends in a region can quickly be aligned to changes in the same direction elsewhere.

Many months of data research has gone into preparing Univac for its role. The instructions will be programmed into the electronic computer at a rate of thousands of numerical characters per second.

GOOD PREDICTIONS

Programmers say the complex mathematical formula will instruct the computer how to reject errors in voting reports, translate raw data into working quantities and process these into final results. After that the computer is being instructed on how to present the results in a form readily interpreted.

Part of Bibby's confidence in Univac is admittedly built on the results of the last two elections. In 1952 just two hours after the first polls closed, with only 3,400,000 votes counted from scattered Eastern states, Univac predicted Eisenhower's victory within four electoral votes. In 1956, with 293,407 votes counted by 7:15 p.m., it predicted the final electoral vote within 13 electoral votes.

America's first industry was a glass factory established at Jamestown, Va., in 1608, a year after the colony was founded.

BLOOM HITS JACK'S STAND

HARRISBURG (AP)—George I. Bloom, state Republican chairman, says Sen. John F. Kennedy indicated in a television debate that he is "thinking in terms of votes, instead of being honest and sincere with the American people."

The Democratic presidential nominee and Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican candidate for president, met in a nationally televised debate Monday

Greene County.

Lewis J. Levin, York County; Carl R. Mapel, Jr., Cumberland County; Paul M. Petro, Washington County; Anthony M. Preston, Erie County; George F. Reed, Philadelphia County; Charles Skomski, Westmoreland County; Peter O. Steege, Beaver County; and Florindo F. Troncelliti, Montgomery County.

SAYS DOCTORS CAMPAIGN FOR NIXON-LODGE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Dauphin County Democratic chairman said Monday the National Doctors' Committee for Nixon-Lodge is campaigning by inuendo against Sen. John F. Kennedy.

W. Stewart Wilbern said in a statement he was shocked by letters the committee has sent to physicians urging their support of Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential candidate. He said doctors also are being urged to drum up votes for Nixon among their patients.

"I hope these debates continue because by Nov. 8 there will be no question whom the American people will support."

SAYS DOCTORS CAMPAIGN FOR NIXON-LODGE

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Dauphin County Democratic chairman said Monday the National Doctors' Committee for Nixon-Lodge is campaigning by inuendo against Sen. John F. Kennedy.

W. Stewart Wilbern said in a statement he was shocked by letters the committee has sent to physicians urging their support of Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the Republican presidential candidate. He said doctors also are being urged to drum up votes for Nixon among their patients.

Wilbern said Harrisburg and Dauphin County "have been flooded by shocking appeals from the doctors' committee for Nixon-Lodge urging physicians to organize against Senator Kennedy." He said the opposition was based on the Democratic presidential candidate's support of the Forand Bill which would have tied an old age medical care plan to social security.

The letter—a copy of which was signed by Dr. Elmer Hess of Washington, D. C., chairman of the doctors' committee. Hess, formerly of Erie, is a past president of the Pennsylvania Medical Society and the American Medical Association.

The Forand Bill, and another measure backed by Nixon, failed to win passage in the bob-tail session of Congress. A compromise bill setting up a federal-state program of financial aid for indigent persons who become ill did pass, however, and was signed into law by President Eisenhower.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—A foraging squirrel Sunday caused a power blackout in half the east side of the city for 30 minutes. A utility company spokesman said the squirrel tripped an oil switch and was killed when it caused a short circuit.
